Teach-out Agreement

Acupuncture and Integrative Medicine College (AIMC) and
Yo San University of Traditional Chinese Medicine

This Teach-out Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into by and between Acupuncture and Integrative Medicine College (AIMC) ("AIMC") and Yo San University of Traditional Chinese Medicine (YSU) ("Yo San"), two ACAHM accredited and CAB approved institutions of higher education, for the purpose of providing an orderly educational pathway for eligible AIMC students to complete their education following the discontinuation of AIMC's academic programs.

Recitals

WHEREAS, AIMC is a private postsecondary educational institution accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Acupuncture and Herbal Medicine ("ACAHM"), authorized to operate by the applicable state regulatory agencies, and eligible to participate in the Federal Student Financial Assistance Programs authorized under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended ("Title IV Programs");

WHEREAS, Yo San University of Traditional Chinese Medicine is a private postsecondary educational institution located at 13315 Washington Boulevard, Los Angeles, California 90066, accredited by ACAHM, approved by the California Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (BPPE), and eligible to participate in the Title IV Programs;

WHEREAS, AIMC has determined that it will discontinue its academic programs and desires to provide its currently enrolled students with an opportunity to complete their education through an approved teach-out arrangement;

WHEREAS, Yo San University offers accredited graduate programs in Acupuncture and Chinese Herbal Medicine and is willing to accept eligible AIMC students under the terms and conditions set forth herein;

WHEREAS, both institutions agree that entering into this Agreement is in the best interests of affected students and will facilitate their continued progress toward degree completion.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises contained herein, the Parties agree as follows.

Teach-out Program

Students participating in this teach-out agreement will transfer into the appropriate Yo San University degree program following an evaluation of previously completed coursework, academic standing, and program eligibility.

Yo San University will evaluate all transfer credit and apply coursework toward its degree requirements where courses are determined to be substantially equivalent in content, competencies, academic level, and rigor.

Students admitted under this Agreement will complete the applicable Yo San University curriculum and must satisfy all degree requirements established by Yo San University.

Students enrolled under this Agreement shall be subject to all academic policies, procedures, standards of satisfactory academic progress, attendance requirements, clinical requirements, graduation requirements, financial policies, codes of conduct, and all other provisions contained in the current Yo San University Academic Catalog and Student Handbook.

Degrees will be awarded solely by Yo San University upon successful completion of all applicable program requirements.

Terms

1. Regulatory Cooperation

The Parties agree to cooperate in securing all approvals and consents required by ACAHM, state regulatory agencies, the U.S. Department of Education, and any other applicable authorities necessary to implement this teach-out agreement.

2. Student Eligibility

Eligible students are those who:

- were enrolled in an eligible AIMC master's and entry-level doctoral programs at the time of the approved teach-out or institutional closure; or

3. Admission

Yo San University agrees to waive its standard admissions application process and application fee for students admitted under this Agreement.

Students must otherwise satisfy all applicable eligibility requirements for enrollment.

4. Transfer Credit

Yo San University will conduct an individual evaluation of each student's academic record and award transfer credit for coursework determined to be substantially equivalent to Yo San University's curriculum and applicable degree requirements.

Transfer credit determinations made by Yo San University shall be final.

5. Degree Requirements

Students may be required to complete additional coursework, clinical education, examinations, competencies, or other academic requirements necessary to satisfy the graduation requirements of the applicable Yo San University degree program.

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as guaranteeing that previously completed coursework will satisfy all Yo San University degree requirements.

6. Academic Policies

Students admitted under this Agreement shall be governed by the Yo San University Academic Catalog and Student Handbook in effect during their enrollment, including but not limited to policies concerning:

- Academic progress
- Attendance
- Grading
- Clinical education
- Professional conduct
- Student rights and responsibilities
- Appeals and grievance procedures
- Graduation requirements
- Tuition and fees
- Financial aid, where applicable

7. Student Records

AIMC agrees to provide Yo San University, consistent with applicable federal and state law, all records reasonably necessary to facilitate the transfer and continued education of participating students, including:

a. Academic transcripts

b. Enrollment records

c. Attendance records

d. Financial aid records

e. Student account information

f. Other educational records reasonably necessary for degree evaluation and enrollment

8. Student Records Maintenance

Yo San University shall maintain academic records for students enrolled under this Agreement in accordance with applicable federal and state laws and institutional record-retention policies.

9. Student Advising

Yo San University representatives will make themselves available to assist participating students with transfer credit evaluations, academic planning, financial aid counseling, registration, and other matters related to successful degree completion.

10. Location of Instruction

Instruction under this Agreement shall be provided through Yo San University's approved instructional locations and delivery methods, including any approved distance education, hybrid, or on-ground instruction.

11. Degree Award

Upon successful completion of all applicable Yo San University degree requirements, participating students shall receive the appropriate degree awarded by Yo San University.

12. Tuition and Fees

Students enrolled under this Agreement shall pay the tuition and fees established by Yo San University for the program in which they are enrolled, as published in the applicable Academic Catalog and institutional fee schedules.

Signatures

FOR ACUPUNCTURE AND INTEGRATIVE MEDICINE COLLEGE (AIMC)

Name: David Lee

Signature: David Solin Lee

Date: August 5th, 2026 gned

FOR YO SAN UNIVERSITY OF TRADITIONAL CHINESE MEDICINE

Name: Robert Hoffman

Signature: _____

Date: _____